Dear Dorothy Christensen:

Here are copies of photos we discussed on the phone. I put in me on the back of them. I've not one of the little. I'm probably early 1900's or I was about 1910-1915.
Don't know as Turner's last name
but think it was similar than Doug Abbey, which still stands on east side of Brown st. although front has been altered.

I was in hope of being able to state as I have given him that the time has gotten away with with the holiday season fast approaching.
Merry Christmas to you and yours.

Blair

Dear Dorothy:

Here are copies of photos we discussed on the phone. Notations are on the back of them. I am not sure of the dates but probably early 1960's on Drugstore corner. Don't know on Turner's East House but think it was earlier than Drug Store, which still stands on east side of main St although front has been altered.

I was in hopes of being able to answer these personally but the time has gotten away with the Holiday Season fast approaching.

Merry Christmas to you and yours.
Blair
